

UW Stroum Jewish Studies Program

2010-2011
Travel Grants

Deadline is
April 9

The Stroum Jewish Studies Program is pleased to offer three (3) merit-based Travel Grant opportunities ($1,750 each) to currently enrolled University of Washington undergraduate and graduate students who plan to study abroad at an institution of higher learning or approved study-abroad program during summer 2010 and/or the 2010/2011 academic year as part of their coursework or research in Jewish studies. Students do not need to be Jewish Studies majors or minors to apply. Travel Grant award recipients are asked to write a brief report to the Jewish Studies Program about their study abroad experience and are strongly encouraged to attend the annual Awards and Recognition Reception in the spring.

Send all application materials to:
Jewish Studies Travel Grant Program
Box 353650
University of Washington
Seattle, WA 98195-3650

To apply, please submit the following:

- A cover sheet with name, student number, phone number, postal and email addresses.
- A 1-2 page description of how studying abroad will enhance your program of study and help you achieve your goals.
- An official transcript sent directly from registrar.
- A letter of recommendation from a UW professor.

Award decisions will be made by early May.

Applications must be received by
April 9, 2010.
